Standing Rock Support From our Buddhist Family:

A Buddhist Statement of Support for the Standing Rock action and Water is Life Protectors

October 2016

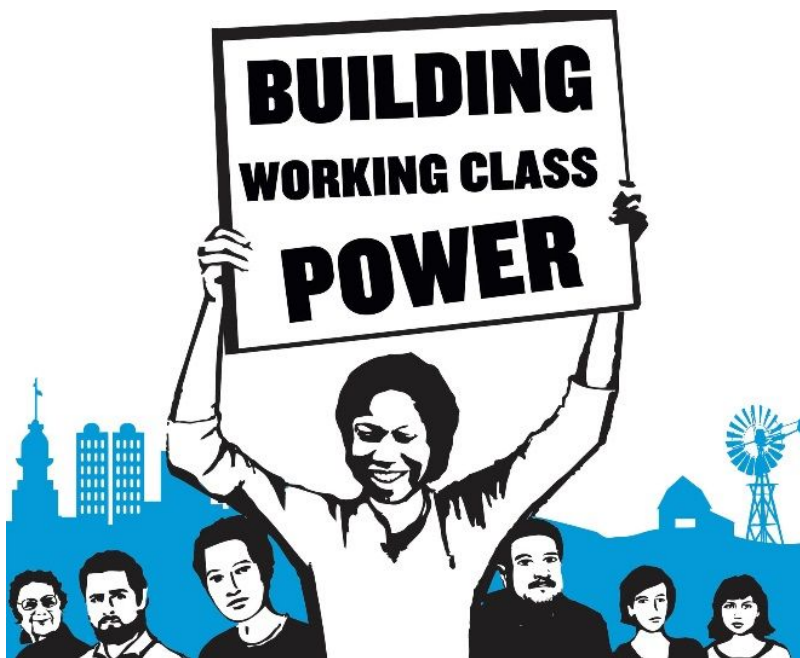

In order to preserve life and sacred land and water on Mother Earth, we practitioners, students, and teachers of the Buddhist tradition stand with the peaceful people of Standing Rock Sioux Reservation and with hundreds of other indigenous nations and allies in protest of construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline. We call on the Army Corps of Engineers and other U.S. government agencies to adhere to regulations protecting the Standing Rock Sioux people, sacred land, and clean water, and to practice truthful and loving speech and action that heals past grievances as well as earning trust. Arrest and prosecution of peaceful protesters must end immediately. Construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline and any efforts toward running a pipeline beneath the Missouri River must be halted until proper environmental assessments are made and risks to the Standing Rock Sioux and other affected groups are prevented.

Please read and sign the online petition here. Stand in solidarity with our Native family! <https://oneearthsangha.org/statements/stand-with-standing-rock/>

Portland Jobs with Justice stands in solidarity with The Standing Rock Sioux as they fight against colonialism and racial oppression.

Portland Rising "Day After" Election Roundup:

This is an important election, with votes on critical local, state, and national issues and offices. Portland Rising invites you, as a member of the JwJ community, to come to our Wednesday, November 9th meeting—the day after the election—to collectively discuss the election results, evaluate our efforts, and consider how best to continue our work building a strong labor movement in Portland.

The meeting will be an opportunity for us to celebrate what we can as well as share our thoughts, hopes and fears. Regardless of how this election turns out, we will need a strong Portland Jobs with Justice. Taking stock of the political moment will help us strengthen our community for the struggles ahead.

Portland Rising meets every second Wednesday of the month, from 5:30 to 7 pm, at the Jobs with Justice office, 1500 NE Irving St #585, Portland, OR 97232.

Calling All Troublemakers!

Labor Notes 2017 Troublemakers School

April 2017

From teachers to bus drivers, retail workers to government employees, farm workers to nurses, we are rebuilding solidarity while fighting for a better world for working people.

The Labor Notes Troublemakers School is a place for troublemakers of all kinds—community organizers, union shop stewards, and labor activists—to come together for a day of skill-building workshops and strategy discussions to create a stronger workers' movement in Portland.

More information to come and if you're interested in volunteering for the event email Linda Jauron-Mills at jauronmills@yahoo.com
